The National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Hosts Their Annual Legislative Day at the Nation's Capitol

ATLANTA, GA, April 13, 2018 – The National Coalition of 100 Black Women Inc., hosts their annual Legislative Day in Washington, DC, Tuesday, April 17, 2018. Altering the Discourse: Black Women and the Power of Voting. Members from a large range of 59 NCBW chapters will spend the day visiting legislators and raising awareness about issues and proposed solutions that directly impact the well-being of black women and girls.

As a historically disenfranchised group, black women have long faced barriers to engaging in the political process. But as more black women demand a seat at the table and a voice in the conversation, it is important to continue creating pathways that empower current and future generations toward civic engagement.

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women Inc., is a non-profit organization whose mission is to advocate on behalf of black women and girls to promote leadership development and gender equity in the areas of health, education and economic empowerment.
